3* End of line.
 4* Rest of line empty; there is a division-line between ll. 167/168.
 5* Rest of line empty; a division-l. follows.
 6* Rest of line empty; a division-l. between ll. 517/518.
 7* Scanty traces near the bottom of the line show that this was a long l.; it is even about 3 squares longer than appears here. This length seems to be too much for the text of P.Gard. II. A division-l. follows.
